

GRANGERBURG

Miss Jennie Thompson of Lancaster, Ohio, is visiting at the home of her brother, Irvin Thompson.

A party of young people consisting of Theodore Gardner, Gertrude Baker of Detroit, Roy Crites of Medina and Pauline Edgington of Granger, autted to Burton Station the fore part of the week.

The Scudder family of Akron are visiting at the home of their brother-in-law Beecher Baxter. Mr. Scudder came to spend Sunday in the family circle.

The Workman family of Fair Lawn were over Sunday visitors at the Fred Waffle home.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church had a delightful session at the J. H. Indoe home on Wednesday. Beecher Baxter, wife and daughter Mary attended the Fuller reunion at Cuyahoga Falls on Wednesday of last week, reporting a splendid time.

About thirty people gathered at the Geo. Wait home last Friday to hold their annual Macabee birthday social.

Clair Miller, accompanied by Mrs. Miller, went to the Y. M. C. A. camp near Akron last Monday. They took with them a party of four of our boys to enjoy the hospitality of the camp for a week.

The steam shovels are at work in the north part of town preparing the grade for the concrete. A camp of workmen made things lively. From all appearances the road will be pushed to completion before cold weather.

We are in receipt of a letter from Mr. Norton, the railroad promoter, in which he informs us that Granger was the only township which has met all her obligations in full and secured a clear right of way for the proposed interurban road. If the other townships had rallied in like manner the road would have been commenced this fall. It looks now as if no work will be done until April next.

Mrs. J. Waters of Tacoma, Wash., and Mrs. Bell Jones of Sharon visited at the Kibbey home west of town on Wednesday last.

Lucy McMillan of Medina, a student at Kent Normal, is at the George Wait home. We were glad to see her back in her accustomed place at church last Sunday.

Mrs. Laurena Chrisman, son and daughter visited the Copley S. S. last Lord's day, it being Woman's rally day at the school. While the men are invited to school on that annual rally, yet all offices on that day are filled by the fair sex. A choir of young ladies rendered appropriate music.

Mr. and Mrs. Mente were callers at the county seat on Tuesday.

At a called meeting of the trustees the $20,000 bonds for road improvement advertised for some time were sold to the brokerage firm of Otis & Co. of Cleveland at a premium of $6 with par and accrued interest. The sale of these bonds will mean the extension of the concrete road north to the town line.

Carpenters are busy at the high school addition, to get it ready for the fall term of school.

Regular services at the M. E. church every Lord's day at 10:30 and 8 p. m., S. S. at 11:30; midweek prayer on Thursday at 8 p. m. Dr. Mente, pastor.

Mrs. N. Lake is a visitor at the Geo. Coddling home in the western part of town.

Mrs. Eva Graff spent Wednesday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Cumberworth in Remson. The heir to the Cumberworth title has great attractions. We hope to be able soon to pay our respects to him.

LITCHFIELD

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sears, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Jessie Sage, returned to their home Sunday.

Miss Ruth Eaken is spending the week with her grandparents, John House and wife in Lafayette.

Rev. Gough of New Straitsville, O., who has preached in the Baptist church the past two Sundays, has been hired for the coming year.

The townspeople were very much surprised when they learned that our genial store-keeper, Mr. Hawk, had sold out. We do not like to lose such people from our midst as Mr. Hawk and family. They will be missed in the church and in the community and in the store. What is our loss is Medina's gain. We wish them success wherever they may locate. Mrs. Hawk's brother of Wooster, who has bought the store, will take possession the first of September.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Hientz and two boys of Akron are spending their vacation at Father Canfield's.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hientz and Mr. and Mrs. Hientz, Sr., of Akron were Sunday callers at A. B. Canfield's.

Master Ray Laughlin, while helping his father in the hay field Monday had his foot cut quite badly, one big toe being cut nearly off. He is doing as well as can be expected.

Dr. Harry Streett underwent a serious operation at Lakeside hospital last week. Mrs. Streett and son are in the city with him. We wish for him a speedy recovery.

VALLEY CITY

Rev. Theo. Wendell of Hilliards, O., visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Weidner over Sunday.

Theo. Damman of Napoleon, O., was a caller at Chas. Wolfe's one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blakschoen and children are spending their vacation at Fred Griesheimer's.

We are sorry to know that our assistant principal, Miss Murbach, has sent in her resignation. She will be greatly missed by this community.

Jno. T. Mayer is the new member of the Board of Education, filling the vacancy left by the resignation of Carl Richter.

Jno. Obermiller has been retained as janitor of our central school building.

The Wolf gas well at this writing has acquired a depth of 1500 feet.

Many from here attended the Moehle reunion held at the home of Geo. Starr at Mallet Creek.

The Weidner family reunion will be held, August 21, at Curtice, O.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Tritt and two children are spending the week at J. Wolf's, Jr.

Albert Bauman and lady friend are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Gunkleman.

Mrs. Julia Otterbacher and son were in Lorain on business one day last week.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Risinger last Tuesday, August 15, a son.

C. J. Hartley of Tiffin, O., is conducting a class in penmanship at the high school building.

Mr. Albin Platz and family will go on a trip through Indiana and Illinois next week.

Miss Adaline Albright, Miss Ardis Albright and Miss Beryl Weston of Tyrone, Pa.; Miss Helen Horne of Erie and Miss Ruth Robinson of Medina are guests of Miss Martha Appleby this week.

Mrs. Mae Johnston of Cleveland spent Wednesday with Mrs. Wm. C. Hoppe.

Miss Gladys Martin is visiting her many friends and relatives at Lakewood and Dover.

Democratic meeting at the town hall on Tuesday evening, Aug. 24, for the nomination of township officers.

Mr. D. A. Levers and family of Massillon spent Sunday at A. H. Troxell's.

Mrs. A. H. Troxell and children are visiting relatives in Cortland and Mineral Ridge this week.

RICHFIELD

Rev. F. E. Eastman's father and mother are guests here.

Lynn Hughes of Huron, was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Hughes last week.

Mrs. Hughes received news of the sudden death of her sister, Mrs. Laura Stanley at Sebring, Monday morning.

The entertainment of the Philathea class last Friday evening at the town hall netted them about $12.

Mrs. Catherine Rathburn, whose serious illness was reported last week, died Thursday morning, Aug. 12. She was born in Canada in 1829. The funeral was held Sunday at the West Richfield cemetery.

Mrs. Sarah Stauffer and Miss Gladys Hickox of Akron visited relatives and friends in Richfield last week.

MEDINA HEIGHTS

This Next Wednesday
OPENING WEEK

BAND CONCERT
AFTERNOON AND EVENING

2 and 7 o'clock eastern time

Bring the Family and Picnic Lunch

P. S. THE MAILMAN HAS SOMETHING FOR YOU THAT IS WORTH
TEN DOLLARS.

